NEW YORK AMERICANS AGAIN TRIMMED BY BOSTON.

The Philadelphias and Detroits took the lead yesterday in the American League race, Philadelphia smothering Washington and Detroit winning a twelve inning game from tt. Louis. The New Yorks were beaten feated Cleveland. The results: Boston, 12; New York, 6.

Another trimming was given to the New York Americans by the world's champions yesterday. The New Yorks did not play good ball, while the Bostons did. The visiting infield gathered in all kinds of licks in the speedy, thorough manner that they did when giving poir to the Pittsburgs, and in certre field "Chick" Stahl took care of sy balls that Fultz did not get rear to. In the second inning, when the Bostons were bannering out six runs, Fultz had a distressing time chasing and reaching for long hits. Apparently he could not gauge the wind or play the batters as well as Stahl of Boston. For that matter, fly balls gave other New York players trouble. Keeler missed one and Beville lost a couple of foul files. The wind and sky were pretty bad and eventually Stahl, too, slipped up on a fly. The Bostons knocked their former clubmate. Tom Hughes, out of the box in the fourth in ing. They made the same sort of clean, hard hits that they made off Powell the day before, only more of them. They bunched five lits in the second in ing and four hathe fourth, and had a fat lead of nine as before the New Yorks got a man across the plate. good ball, while the Bostons did. The visit-

SILVER DREAM THE WINNER.

TAKES ROCKAWAY STAKES FROM FOR LUCK AND THE MUSKETEER.

James R. Keene's Augur, 12 to 1, Captures Canarsie Stakes in Track Record Time -Handicap for Oar man-Four Favorites Beaten Before & Big Crowd.

Another great crowd, numbering 20,000 persons, braved the wintry blasts and the blinding dust clouds at Aqueduct yesterday, where the bookmakers made a financial haul almost as heavy as that of the preceding day. The craze for racing was never more intense, and the outpouring was unanimously taken to mean that this season will be a record breaker in point of profits for the tracks. Train after train, each consisting of a dozen cars, unloaded enthusiasts, including hundreds of women, until not a seat was left in the long grand stand, while gangway on the lawn and in the betting ring was something difficult to find. Four favorites, oaded with thousands of the public's money. went by the board, and when form at last began to assert itself, in the last two events, the crowd had little left with which to play

The Rockaway Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, at six furlongs, was the feature of an interesting card, but it was a source of bitter disappointment to the talent, who made Mrs. Frank Farrell's noted sprinter, The Musketeer, favorite at 13 to 10. Jack Ratlin, the Westerner, was backed down to 4 to 1, second choice, with Newton Bennington's For Luck receding a point to fives. H. T. Griffin's Conkling was picked up at sevens, while Jule Garson's fleet Henry of Navarre filly, Silver Dream, looked tempting to many at eights. On the break Shaw failed to get The Musketeer away in front, something that has always worked as a disadvantage to the son of Mosetto. For Luck, on the other hand, was away from the gate like a shot, and, with Burns hustling Silver Dream after her, the pair showed the way to the stretch with The Musketeer not far behind them. When it came down to cases at the last furlong pole Burns was master of the situation, for Silver Dream dashed into the lead and came home an easy winner by two lengths in the fast time of 1:13 4-5. For Luck held The Musketeer safe and beat him a length for the place, with Jack Ratlin next, closing strongly.

Next in importance was the Canarsic Stakes. for two-year-olds, at four furlongs, for which Newton Bennington's Song and Wine, a colt by Goldfinch - Widow Cliquot, was a ho favorite at 8 to 5. with "Father Bill" Daly" colt Amberjack, by Henry of Navarre-Aurata, heavily played at threes. Song and Wine got away slowly and never had a look-in. Amberiack was bumped and crowded just after the getaway, yet ran a good race, finishing second.

But James R. Keene's Augur, by St. Leonards-Secress, 12 to 1, made all the running with Burns on his back, and not only won easily by three lengths, but also hung up the fastest time, .0:47, ever made at this track, and a half a second slower than the world's record for two-year-olds. The race was run

If the Brooklyn Baseball Club intends to play Sunday games during this summer I want to know just how we stand, but, as I have already said, I do not anticipate trouble; but if they try to get around a provision of the law that they shall not charge admission to the grounds by any finney subterfuge, they will get into trouble. The game is scheduled to be played on Sunday afternoon. I cannot tell what we may do until that time. We will be there and will enforce the law."

Dr. Hubbell, one of the secretaries of the New York Sabbath Committee, paid a call to Commissioner MoAdoo yesterday morning and complained to him that now that the season had opened baseball was to be played on Sunday, that, in fact, and particular, there was a game between Boston and Brooklyn scheduled for to-day. The secretary wished to know what was going to be done about it, and argued that to hold the game would be in violation of the municipal Sunday laws.

"I am looking into this matter, said the Commissioner, "and am having it attened to. I have given orders to the captain of the precinct in which the ball grounds are situated to enforce the laws to-morrow, to collect all the facts he can, and to render me a full report on Monday morning.

"The laws on Sunday observance," continued Commissioner McAdoo, "are in such a state of 'flux,' so to speak, that really I cannot tell just what the legal aspect of this case is. So many decisions pro and con have been given in regard to Sunday baseball playing that it is almost impossible for me to discover what my duty is, to say nothing of instructing the men under me.

"The only definite point in the whole matter is that games where no gate money is received are perfectly legal. That's all I can say on this question until the law has become more fixed. I shall, however, do the best I can under these uncertain circumstances."

Difficulty in Changing Dates for International Cricket.

The Associated Cricket Clubs of Philadelphia re having difficulty in their efforts to change the time for international cricket here from September and October to June and July. The teams invited have stated that this arrangement would interfere with the English county championship series and other important fixtures.

The Marylebone C. C., which was asked to send over a team, said it would be impos sible to get together a side in June strong enough to allow its name to be used by the visitors. The Gentlemen of Ireland, who had previously offered to come here for a series of games in September and October also declined on this account. Negotiations are now bending with H. G. D. Leveson-Gower to bring over a team; but it is expected that the same difficulty will stand in his way, and that if we are to have any international cricket here at all it must be played in the fall.

There seems no reason, however, why the games should not be played early in September instead of toward the close of that month. The English county season ends in August, and a team could very easily be got here to play the beginning of the month. When the Cambridge-Oxford eleven under Frank Mitchell came over some years ago, it played its first match in New York on Labor Day, when there was attracted to Staten Island one of the largest crowds that ever attended a cricket match hereabout. now pending with H. Tommy Burns Carries Off the Riding Honors-Starter Fitzgerald Suspends Jockeys-"Canada Jack" Cashes Big Commissions-Aste Gets Jack Ratlin. Newton Bennington's luck took an unexpected shift yesterday. After making the layers weary on Friday, the tall plunger went to Aqueduct yesterday prepared to renew the slaughter. He began by sending Salad Days, trained by Fred Burlew, in th first race, the Watercress filly's price falling from tens to sevens, but the youngster finished far back in the ruck. Bennington unbelted in the Canareie Stakes on his colt. Song and Wine, only to lose again. Then he went to For Luck, also carrying his colors in the Rockaway Stakes, breaking about even. In the last race he backed his colt Hello, with the idea of getting out on the day, but it was the same old story.

Tommy Burns carried off the honors in the saddle yesterday. He came within a few inches of winning the first race with James R. Keene's Cotillion, then scored impressively ith Mr. Keene's Augur in the Canarsie Stakes, and followed it up by riding Silver Dream to victory in the Rockaway Stakes. By that time the cry became general "Play Burns!" so there was a rush to back Knobhampton, Burns's mount in the fifth event. It looked for a time, too, as if Tommy would win again, but the colt, after valuey trying to head Lord of the Valley, stopped at the last sixteenth pole. Burns is riding as a free lance this year, but it is understood that he will have many mounts from the Keene stable. James Rowe, trainer of the Keene horses, was not at Aqueduct yesterday. The

at that track has been turned over to Rowe's foreman, Taylor, who prepared both Augur and Cotillion for their races. It is stated on good authority that the Keene two-year-olds this year are above the average from Castle ton Stud, and that they will bear watching as they are cut loose from time to time. Secretary Edwards of the Jamaica track says that between fifteen and twenty horses will start in the rich Excelsior Handicap a week from to-morrow.

E. F. Smathers was a visitor at Aqueduct yesterday. He said that he did not know when McChesney would run his first race of the year, but it is believed that "Big Mac" will make his bow in the Metropolitan Handicap, if not in the Excelsior.

Bullman rode his first winner of the year in the Fast on Akela in the second race. He will ride as a free lance this year, John J. Hyland making his engagements.

COLUMBIA OARSMEN IMPROVE. Plenty of Long Work for Varsity Candi dates-Freshmen in a Brush. Only five Columbia crews were working on the Harlem yesterday under the supervision of Jasper T. Goodwin, the coach. The rowing squad has suffered another out and eight men have been dropped. There are now just three full varsity boats, instead of four, but the two freshman eights remain intact. Work during the past week has been very hard. Despite cold weather and high winds the oarsmen have been working out over long stretches four and five miles a day. The hardest workout was given yesterday, when Goodwin sent the three varsity eights close twenty-two to the minute. Both Capt. Maeder and Coach Goodwin were on the launch coaching the two early varsity boats and the freshman crews.

The rowing has improved considerable and many of the faults.

coaching the two early varsity boats and the freshman crews.

The rowing has improved considerably, and many of the faults that were so evident a week ago have been wiped out entirely. One novelty of the rowing practice of yesterday was a series of brushes between the two freshman eights. They started some distance apart, and when the word was given brushed for about a mile. There was little apparent difference and they finished about as far apart as they had been at the start.

Coach Goodwin says that he will announce the make-up of his first and second varsity boats within two weeks, but that until then no selection of any sort will be made. Coach Goodwin had several of the men out working with him in doubles and gave them considerable individual attention. Capt. Maeder took charge of the freshmen while the regular coach was busy with the other men.
